BEST EVER BIRTHDAY PRESENT: NO MORE CHEMO

• Jack Bristow, who turned 10 years old yesterday, with seven-year-old brother Alfie

IT is not a typical 10-year-old boy's birthday wish.

But Jack Bristow was given the best news he had hoped for just in time to hit double figures yesterday – he does not need any more chemotherapy.

The Popley schoolboy is thought to be the youngest person in the world to have had chemo and surgery for testicular cancer.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

And doctors told the football fan on Thursday his prognosis was looking so optimistic that he could get the all clear at the end of next month.

"It's really cool news," Jack told the Observer.

"I'm really looking forward to celebrating over my birthday.

"People have been really good and have given me a lot of help."

He spent his birthday yesterday with parents Joanne and Daniel, and seven-year-old brother Alfie at an American diner in Newbury.

Since being diagnosed with testicular cancer in December, Jack and his family have been through a hectic ordeal.

Jack has since been through an operation to remove his testicle and four cycles of chemotherapy, the last of which ended on April 7 and made him very ill.

Dad Daniel, 32, said: "Fingers crossed it will all be over. - the whole thing has been a nightmare.

"It has been the worst experience of my life but I am feeling a lot more positive."

World's youngest boy treated for testicular cancer

• From front page

He added: "Having cancer is not something I would like to go through but I cannot get over how positive and strong Jack has been.

"If I was going through it, I don't think I would be half as happy as him."

Jack, a pupil at Merton Junior School pupil, was rushed to Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital in December after suffering a kick to the groin during football.

Doctors made the discovery while in theatre ready to operate on Jack and he was diagnosed with a testicular cancer germ cell tumour called Seminomas.

He was taken to Southampton General Hospital where he is being treated on Piam Brown children's cancer ward.

"It was amazing to hear the news," 29-year-old mum Joanne said.

"It has been such a roller-coaster ride for him."

He is due to have more blood tests before he can get the official all clear to say he is in remission, meaning the cancer is either going or gone.

Family, friends, and strangers from across the Popley community and beyond rallied to fundraise for Piam Brown ward in honour of Jack's bravery.

So far nearly £8,000 has been raised through a kickboxing event, charity football match, and hair-shaving day at a Popley barbers.

CANDIDATES REVEALED

THE official list of candidates fighting for residents' votes to become Basingstoke's next MP at next month's elections were announced on Thursday.

Four party candidates and one independent candidate are vying for votes.

The previous Basingstoke MP was Conservative Maria Miller, first elected in 2005.

She will be standing again for the Conservatives against Dr Paul Harvey for the Labour Party, Janice Spalding for the Liberal Democrats, Alan Stone for Ukip and independent candidate, Dr Omar Selim.

The Green Party will not have a candidate standing in the election because the application the submitted was deemed unlawful, see right for full story.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The seat of Basingstoke MP is dubbed a Conservative 'safe' seat as the party has held it since the 1920s.

Election candidates for North West Hampshire MP and North East Hampshire MP have also been announced.

North West Hampshire's wards include Baughurst, Burghclere, East Woodhay, Highclere and Bourne, Kingsclere, Oakley and North Waltham, Overton, Laverstoke and Steventon, Tadley North, Tadley South and Whitchurch.

While North East Hampshire includes the towns and villages of Hook, Odiham, Sherfield on Loddon and Hartley Wintney.

A poll for the election of the next Member of Parliament will be held between 7am and 10pm on May 7.

During the same day and time some Basingstoke residents will also be tasked with voting for Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council representatives.

The seats for about one third of the council are up for election, see page two for full details.

MP head to head:

election debate will take place on April 30 between the five parliamentary candidates for Basingstoke at St. Mary's Church in Goat Lane, Eastrop.

The event, organised by the Alliance of Basingstoke Churches, will start at 8pm.

Anyone who wants to submit a question to the candidates must email it in advance to ABC.Hustings@virginmedia.com.

Green Party candidates rejected

THE Green Party does not have any parliamentary candidates standing for Basingstoke on May 7 as their application was ruled unlawful for fielding two candidates.

A request for joint candidacy was submitted to Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council on Thursday but was rejected by the electoral returning officer.

Parliament does not allow MPs to share a constituency.

The two candidates who wanted to submit the application were Sarah Cope, 36, and Clare Phipps, 26.

The party said neither could serve as a full-time MP as Ms Cope is a mum-of-two and Ms Phipps suffers from a disability – idiopathic hypersomnia – which means she has to sleep for over 12 hours a day.

Job sharing for MPs has been a Green Party policy since 2012.

Ms Cope said: "Allowing job-share MPs would open up Parliament to a more diverse group of people, including more women, those with childcare and other caring responsibilities and those with disabilities."

Council "trying to shut down" Ukip shop

A UKIP shop in Top of Town has been asked to remove its signs by Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council - prompting Ukip candidate Alan Stone to complain it is trying to shut down the shop.

Mr Stone, who runs the Wote Street shop on a 10-year lease, received the letter from the council on Thursday.

The shop sells Ukip paraphernalia and discusses the political party with people.

The council's letter states the shop signs "appears to breach the terms" of the lease and gives him seven days to remove them.

Mr Stone said: "Local councillors are trying to shut down my Ukip shop.

"This is purely a political move."

He added: "If the Labour party want to bring in a shop, I would embrace it because it is bring politics to the town. This is not fair."

The council declined to comment during the election purdah period.

Travellers moved on from Morrisons by police

ABOUT 20 travellers' caravans which took over the car park of Basingstoke's Morrisons were ushered on by police the next day.

They gathered at the supermarket in Worting Road on Thursday at about 9.30pm.

Morrison's confirmed the travellers were issued with an eviction notice and police officers helped staff move them on at 10am on Friday.

Basingstoke resident Roland Whitehall, 82, of Sandys Road, said: "I have never seen anything like it.

"They are nice, clean caravans but I do not think they are a caravan club.

"I think they must have been here overnight."

While Twitter user @shonaax wrote: "I've never seen so many caravans, basically filling Morrisons carpark! (sic)."

Morrisons store worker Marie Boddington added there had been "no disruption" to the store's opening times.

Old Basing resident Tony Tuck said: "It does not happen as much as it used to, Old Basing used to get a lot of travellers.

"I know the police have the power to move them on fairly quickly now."

Full steam ahead at mini train rally

MORE than 700 people flocked to Basingstoke to admire the painstaking work of engineering enthusiasts who built their own working mini steam trains.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Families, train lovers and casual observers were given the chance to ride on some of the locomotives running on homemade tracks set up at Viables Community Centre on Saturday and Sunday.

The weekend, hosted by Basingstoke and District Model Engineering Society, drew in crowds from the Isle of Wight to Peterborough.

Dave Andrews, an engineer from South Ham, said: "It is gratifying to see so many people here because these days you can buy things off the shelf and you don't appreciate what you've got.

"But once you have made it, you can prove it goes and you see the number of people who ride on the trains who are enjoying it."

Mr Andrews has been a member of the Basingstoke society since it was founded in 1976.

It is made up of 47 people who want to maintain and preserve Britain's industrial heritage by building mini versions of the trains.

The miniature steam rally, in its fifth year, saw members of other societies display their work as well.

Passionate engineer Alan Phillips, 75, from Winchester, showed off his hand built traction engine 'Auld George' to visitors.

It took him around seven years to build.

"If you look at it, it is just a lot of bits which you can make one at a time," he said.

"And you finally end up with no drawings to make and when you put it together, you set it on fire and it works."

Engineer Michael Breeze, 82, from Peterborough, said: "It's a nice spot here in Basingstoke and the building work of the trains is very good.

"I go up and down the country to miniature steam rallies and this one is very impressive."

Beth Lowe, 44, of Whitchurch, came with her two daughters, Megan, eight, and Lauren, five.

"It's brilliant," she said.

"It has been a good fun day out and the children love it."

PCC backs ban

HAMPSHIRE: Hampshire's Police and Crime Commissioner has backed a government ban on legal highs.

Simon Hayes said: "I support the government in imposing this ban. I hope however they will go further and pledge either a total ban or legislation governing their sale of these dangerous and life threatening poisons."

On April 10, a ban lasting 12 months of five legal highs came into force while the independent Advisory Council on the Misuse of Drugs decides if they should be permanently controlled.

£150m hospital plans submitted

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A PLANNING application to build a £150million hospital on the edge of Basingstoke was submitted on Friday.

Plans for the critical treatment centre on land north of junction 7 of the M3, near North Waltham, were handed over to Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council for a decision to approve or reject the project.

Over 450 people viewed the plans at a consultation in February.

Chief executive of Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust (HHFT), Mary Edwards, said: "We were delighted so many people viewed the information.

"The feedback from the questionnaire, from the many one-to-one conversations we've had as well as the letters of support we have received has all helped us get a good idea of people's views."

The new hospital would specialise in treating the sickest patients – who have suffered heart attacks, strokes or major trauma - from Newbury to Eastleigh.

It would also include a maternity department, and consultants would be on hand 24 hours a day, seven days a week at the 22-hectatre site.

A £18.5m cancer treatment centre could also be built next to it.

But a group of residents who formed the North Waltham Action Group are concerned about the impact the hospital could have on the area.

Campaign group coordinator, Christine Rowley, also said they fear the maternity and Intensive Care Unit in Basingstoke's existing Aldermaston Road hospital will close as a result.

"If it will take services away from main hospitals, surely we should be concerned about it," she told the Observer.

But project co-ordinator for the new hospital Arnie Lustman said: "My personal opinion is the North West Action Group is making a lot of noise but the amount of people opposed to the building of a terrific hospital is small.

"We are moving the services, not closing them."

BCOT plans to extend buildings

BASINGSTOKE College of Technology is waiting for a decision from the borough council on permission to build a £625,000 extension.

The Worting Road college applied to have Block C building on the north site of the campus refurbished and extended on February 12.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council is due to make a decision on the application – for two big workshop classrooms and a yard area - by the end of this month.

The college's head of estate and facilities Hazel Jones said: "We have been in touch with our planning officer at the council and we should get a decision within the next few weeks.

"We have not had any negative feedback so I'm hopeful it should get accepted.

"It will be brand new workshop space – the environment will be greatly improved for the students."

The construction block – which has a works yard area and a scaffolded and corrugated roof area where students practise their brickwork - would be extended and improved.

If permission is granted, demolition work would start in July or August on outbuildings, and work on internal teaching areas would start in September - with a target finishing date of Christmas.

Nursery needs to improve - Ofsted

MAPLEDURWELL: The Monkey House Nursery School in Greywell Road "requires improvement" according to Ofsted, who inspected the school last month.

After an inspection on March 9, Ofsted published a report on the nursery on March 31 stating that "security arrangements are not robust at all times" and "self evaluation and development planning are weak."

The nursery, which has 35 children on roll, aged two to eight, was previously inspected 2011.

It was rated "good" by inspectors then but according to the new report, it has dropped a standard.

In order to improve, the school must "improve security", "ensure staff routinely identify children's next steps for learning" and make sure "visitors are made aware of the procedures relating to the use of cameras and mobile phones."

182 bikers stopped

HAMPSHIRE: A total of 182 bikers were stopped in Hampshire and the Isle of Wight during a police safety campaign from March 30 to April 5.

The Hampshire Constabulary campaign saw officers go out on their bikes and stopped other motorcyclists to give advice, report them for offences, and 16 were stopped because they were involved in crashes.

Whitchurch-based roads policing officers stopped a total of 30 riders.

Market to expand down three streets

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

BIG plans to expand Basingstoke's market to a further three streets are being celebrated by Top of Town traders.

Since Easter Sunday, eight new stalls have emerged and the market has expanded down Wote Street.

The borough council hired a new market operator who says he is determined to make the town's market as bold as possible.

Lew Hughes, of Hughmark Continental Ltd – a specialist market management company – has the job of bringing in new traders to Top of Town.

"We are introducing new traders to the Top of Town market to improve the offer to the public," Mr Hughes said.

"Large towns that have their super-duper shopping centres – which are great – but the old part of towns tend to get forgotten about.

"All towns do it but we want to improve the footfall in the Top of Town so shops and businesses can thrive."

The new market stalls include a cheese stall, fishmonger, bread, cakes, flower worker, hair accessories, delicatessen and one that serves German sausages.

• New stalls have already extended the market down Wote Street

Mr Hughes said the project could take up to two years – with plans to expand the market down London Street, Winchester Street and finally Church Street.

Specialist markets will be introduced gradually and it will slowly grow as businesses get settled there.

But people will notice a "substantial difference" before Christmas, Mr Hughes added.

"If we put in a lot of new traders and the footfall does not improve, a lot of traders will leave," he said.

"People need to be patient, it will take a while to get everyone's satisfaction."

The market plans are a result of the borough council's town centre programme to bring more people to Top of Town.

A French Market will be held on May 8 and 9, there will be an Italian market in June and a food festival in August.

And Mr Hughes revealed there are plans to bring in fashion stalls, a retro stall, music stalls and a farmers market.

Juliette Boylan, who has worked at Pandora's Box in Market Place for 23 years, said: "Looking at how bad it was and how better it is now, it is good – and long may it continue.

"We want more stalls. The bigger the market, the better for Basingstoke. If we get a bigger market, it will bring people into Basingstoke."

Mr Hughes added: "People will have a market they will be proud of – market days will be one of the better days to come to Basingstoke."

Ofsted: Hook Infant School 'outstanding'

AN INFANT school in Hook was judged "outstanding" by Ofsted after an inspection last month.

The government education watchdog ruled Hook Infant School in Church View should be given the highest rating in its report published on April 2 - up from "good" with room for improvement in its previous 2010 inspection.

Inspectors visited the school, which has 261 five to seven-year-olds, on March 11 and 12. The report declared teaching is "at least good and outstanding in all year groups".

Lead inspector Eileen Chadwick said: "The school does all it can to ensure pupils have equal opportunities to succeed."

She added: "Relationships are excellent and pupils from different backgrounds get on extremely well together.

"The school places a very strong emphasis on promoting pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development."

According to the report, the school can improve further by improving the quality of phonics teaching.

But standards are particularly high in reading, writing and mathematics – and well above average by Year 2.

The report further added: "Parents are very appreciative of all the school does for their children."

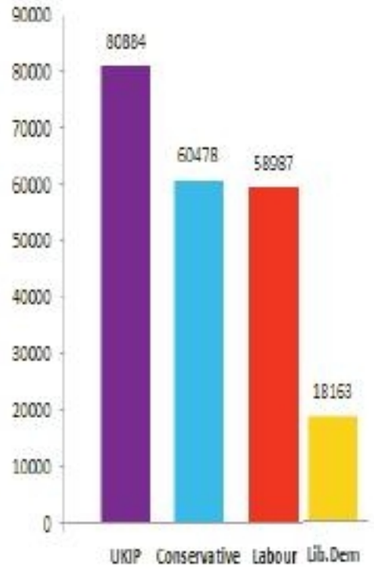
UKIP

On 7th May, make a difference.

VOTE STONE, VOTE UKIP.

BELIEVE in BRITAIN

Only UKIP Speak for the whole country.



Votes cast in the last 5 Westminster by-elections

About half a billion people from 27 other EU countries have the presumptive right of entry to the UK and enjoy all the benefits afforded to a UK citizen. Many come from countries which are much poorer than our own, enforcing a pressure to emigrate . As a result, new immigrants seeking economic betterment are arriving on an unprecedented level.

In the last twelve months, immigration figures were 625,000. As most of those new arrivals are unskilled, a great strain is being placed on our infrastructure and British workers are now finding that the minimum wage is rapidly becoming the maximum wage.

Whilst the UK remains part of the European Union, there is absolutely nothing that can be done to stem this migratory flow. Only UKIP is serious about offering the people of the UK a fair and unbiased referendum on EU membership.

But immigration to the United Kingdom does not stop at the European Union nationals. Any national of any country of the world who enters into a marriage or partnership with any EU national who is ostensibly exercising his/her treaty rights can gain access to the UK. Often, such arrangements are organised by unscrupulous immigration networks which exploit sham marriages .

UKIP advocates a points based system whereby immigrants arriving in the UK are properly controlled. That way, we can choose who can immigrate to the UK and who cannot.

The UK needs to adopt a programme of prudent forward planning and a weak immigration control is not the way forward. Only UKIP can offer voters the correct solution.

Hook AGM

HOOK: Hook's annual village meeting is set for May 27.

Residents will get an update on Hook's neighbourhood plan during the meeting at 8pm in Hook Community Centre in Raven Road.

To submit questions beforehand, email town council clerk at clerk@hook.gov.uk.

Plan progressing

ALTON: A public consultation on Alton's draft neighbourhood plan finished on March 30.

Over 200 responses were received from residents about the plan - a blueprint for housing, employment and infrastructure in the area.

The neighbourhood plan steering group will now compile responses and adjust the plan before it is submitted to East Hants District Council .

A public vote for or against the plan is to be held this autumn.

Concept: 'It all began here in Basingstoke'

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

BASINGSTOKE boy band Concept said they are overwhelmed by support from fans at a jam-packed Haymarket Theatre gig last Wednesday.

The group of five friends showcased new original material for the first time at the venue in Wote Street – to a crowd of over 400 fans.

The the gig sold out less than 24 hours after tickets went on sale.

Band member Scott Dicks, 21, said: "It was unbelievable – the best show we have done.

"The energy of the place made it, everybody was so excited to hear the new music.

"Everything went down so well.

"Everyone was saying how much they liked our new stuff."

The group, made up of Scott, Karim Newton, 21, Matt Goodenough, 21, Ben Selley, 20, and Nathan Gittens, 20, rose to fame when they starred on the X Factor talent TV show last year.

They did not make it to the live finals of the show but netted country-wide recognition in the process.

And the gig on Wednesday was the first time they played music they had written themselves – despite having performed various shows last year.

"After gigs, I like to ask people how it was – it is always good to get feedback," said Karim.

"People were blown away by our new songs. I cannot believe we got that reception, in Basingstoke – where it all started!"

Concept performed 14 songs at the gig – nine of which were new material which will feature on their EP to be released next month.

And the boys – who all attended Queen Mary's College – will be performing again in May at Tadley's first music festival on May 23: the Tadley Tea Party.

Until then, the group will carry on writing, preparing their first record and looking for a label.

Nathan added: "It was an amazing day – everything went right."

"It was nice to do something for our hometown.

"The next few months are looking very bright."

Vampire alert: At last - a job for you!

On Monday and Tuesday 8th & 9th June Geopace Training are returning to Basingstoke with their ever popular phlebotomy training course.

Phlebotomists are the skilled healthcare professionals who take your blood. There are no entry requirements or qualifications to start working as a trainee phlebotomist and many people enter the profession when they are looking for a career change. "We train people from all walks of life and all ages" comments Jennie Eagleton, office manager. "We've had bricklayers, shop assistants,receptionists,beauticiansand dental nurses, as well as unemployed, school leavers and retired" says Jennie. "JobCentre Plus often put people on our courses too".

It's a little known fact that there are no formal qualifications for phlebotomists, who routinely work in GP Surgeries, Hospitals and Clinics. Once on the NHS healthcare career ladder ambition often drives many to progress to working in the labs.

Many hundreds of Geopace trainees are now working as phlebotomists throughout the UK and some have chosen to work abroad where, like the UK, there is a shortage and growing demand for this specialised skill.

If you love or have ever fancied a career in healthcare and like the idea of the job security offered by the NHS then this may be just the job for you. Training takes place over two full days and culminates in the award of a nationally recognised and accredited certificate. "We practice on artificial arms", says Jennie. "And all our students have a lot of fun learning. We get a great deal of satisfaction when we later learn that they are working in their local hospital or GP Surgery".

If you would like to know more about phlebotomy as a career then visit Geopace's website at www.geopace.com. A link to the NHS jobs guide for phlebotomists is also available on the site. To enrol on the June course you can book online or book by telephoning the office on 01525 713377

New chief executive starts in role

THE new chief executive to head up Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council had his first week in the job last week.

Melbourne Barrett, 50, joined the borough council on April 7 to replace Tony Curtis, who announced his retirement last July.

"It is great to be joining such a high-performing council that is rated so highly by the residents it serves," Mr Barrett said.

"I was attracted here by the positive attitude I saw in the council towards giving the borough an even brighter future, as well as delivering efficiently the services residents need every day."

Mr Barrett, a dad of two, spent his first few days meeting council staff and learning about the major projects and issues in the borough.

He was picked for the post in December and previously worked at Oxford City Council, where he led the redevelopment of the Westgate Shopping Centre and in his previous position in London, he was responsible for a £1billion residential property portfolio.

He added: "I look forward to working with councillors, officers, residents and partners to contribute to the next steps in the journey that the council has already been on and to continue making a real difference to our communities."

£1.5m expansion for special school

A BOARDING school for children with severe learning difficulties opened two new £1.5million buildings on Thursday to support eight more children.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

More than 100 students, parents, carers and teachers were at The Loddon School in Wildmoor Lane, Sherfield-on-Loddon, for the opening ceremony.

The two new buildings contain eight large bedrooms with ensuites for the teenagers aged 15 to 18 - expanding the school from 20 to 28 students, as well as a quiet lounge for them to relax and rooms for them to spend time on their own, designed so carers can keep watch.

Lynn Young, The Loddon School principal, said: "The weather was perfect and a good number of people came to support us - we are really proud of the new buildings."

The school is hailed as the only one of its kind in the UK.

It serves as a boarding school for children who cannot live at home because of special needs like severe autism or epilepsy, and does not have classrooms.

Ms Young added: "Children at the school with autism can choose what they do. We build a service around them.

"It is still very structured but it is very much led by them. We fill the day with things they want to do."

The Duchess of Wellington and Mayor of Basingstoke Roger Gardiner were among those given a tour of the buildings after the ribbon was cut.

Cllr Gardiner said: "The buildings are absolutely brilliant – the amount of thought that has gone into them is enormous. The architects must have had a wonderful time working on it."

The school, for eight to 19-year-olds, was rated "outstanding" in January by education watchdog Ofsted, which said: "Parents can be confident that their children are being looked after safely".

School founder Marion Cornick said: "Despite us starting the school in 1988, the philosophy has not changed.

"We aim to give the children a safe and secure environment.

"We praise them for what they do right rather than nag them for what they do wrong.

"Our positive approach means that children make progress and develop the skills to go on to live fulfilling adult lives."

School fete

CHINEHAM: Four Lanes Community Junior School is holding its annual summer fete on June 27.

Stalls will be set up both inside and outside the school and entry is free.

The event will run from 2pm to 5pm at the school in Hanmore Road.

Food waste plea

HAMPSHIRE: Hampshire County Council is looking for volunteers to help educate people in the county on how to be less wasteful with food.

Around 62,000 tonnes of food is thrown away in rubbish bins in Hampshire every year.

Most could have been eaten and it is costing the country billions of pounds to dispose of.

The council is looking for people to train who will go on to talk to students, businesses and community groups on how to be more resourceful, as well as contribute to websites and attend local events.

For more information, call Zoe Cooke on 01962 832286.

BCoT open day

BASINGSTOKE: Basingstoke College of Technology is holding its next open day this Saturday, May 18.

Year 10 and 11 students who are undecided on what they want to do after school are encouraged to come along where they can look around the campus and talk to staff and students.

The open day will run from 4pm to 7.30pm.

SO YOU WANT TO SELL YOUR HOUSE OR FLAT FAST?

You can either engage the services of a local estate agent. Or you can try marketing your house yourself. Or you can sell direct to reputable property buyers, such as Top Property Solutions who can complete the purchase quickly.

If you try to sell your house yourself or sell your house via an estate agent, there's always the possibility that it won't sell as quickly as you had hoped and can sometimes take more than 12 months. There's also a possibility that your house sale won't complete. One in three sales fall through for whatever reason.

So if you are prepared to sacrifice the change of a short term gain and take the certainty of a solid sale, save you from further stress, than please read on.

There's many reasons why you may need a quick sale - your dream house has come on the market, you could be trading up or down. You may have some financial of cash flow difficulties and no longer pay your mortgage. Perhaps you are getting divorced, or you have inherited a property or need to relocate quickly for a new job. We can help even if you are in negative equity or your house is in bad condition. Whatever your situation we can help you move on with your life.

Top Property Solutions is a local company, based in North Warnborough, we are not nationwide. We call when invited, offer a fair price to buy your property or sell it on to other investors.

How do we compare against Estate Agents? At Top Property Solutions our service is completely free for you. We pay up to 90% of the market value. We pay your survey and legal fees. There are no estate agents fees to pay, no cosmetic repairs needed to pay before you sell. After all the fees, there isn't much difference between the estate agents and using Top Property Solutions. The main difference this that we can sell your property quickly for you and save you from the uncertainty of going through an estate agent. It's a no brainer - why you wouldn't want to use Top Property Solutions?

At Top Property Solutions we do not drop the price agreed at the last minute. Top Property Solutions is a member of The Property Ombudsman and we aim to keep on building our good reputation.

If you can think of someone we can help, we will pay you £100 when we do a deal on that referral. T&Cs apply.

Competition

WIN tickets to Gypsy in London's West End

Don't miss Gypsy, one of the greatest ever Broadway musicals, as it transfers to the West End following its sell-out, rapturously acclaimed five-star run at Chichester Festival Theatre.

Imelda Staunton delivers a "knock-out performance" (The Independent) as Momma Rose in Jonathan Kent's "dazzling revival" (Mail on Sunday), alongside Lara Pulver, who reprises her "stunning" (The Independent) role as Louise. They are joined by Peter Davison as Herb, in this gloriously entertaining musical fable that features "showstopping" (Mail on Sunday) choreography from Stephen Mear.

Based on the true life memoirs of legendary burlesque entertainer, Gypsy Rose Lee, it tells the tale of Momma Rose and her two daughters, Baby June and Louise, trekking across America in their family vaudeville act. But times are changing, audiences are expecting more, and the two girls have their own ambitions in mind. The rise of burlesque is upon them, and nothing will ever be the same again for Momma Rose.

Closing date:
Friday, May 1, 2015

With lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, book by Arthur Laurents and music by Jule Styne, this moving and "scintillating" (The Times) production of Gypsy is the first to be seen in London for 40 years.

For more information and for the best seats with no booking fees visit www.gypsythemusical.uk

We have 2 pairs of tickets to this fantastic show and to be in with a chance of winning one all you have to do is answer this simple question.

Q: Who wrote the lyrics for the musical Gypsy?

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Advanced Digital Imaging

OCT will give accurate diagnosis:

- AMD
- Diabetic Maculopathy
- Macular Hole
- Epiretinal Membrane
- Early detection of Glaucoma

*It is estimated that approximately 2% of people over the age of 40 will have Glaucoma.

*Statistics obtained from The International Glaucoma Association.

What is an OCT scan?

This practice has invested in the very latest OCT scanning technology.

An Optical Coherence Tomography (OCT) scan is a unique test which uses near-infrared light reflected off the retina to produce a high resolution 3-Dimensional scan of the retina and associated structures.

It is particularly useful in the assessment of patients with AMD, Diabetic Maculopathy, early detection of Glaucoma and the management of these diseases. The test is non invasive, quick and entirely painless.

Am I at risk of Glaucoma?

Are you over 40?
Do you have a family history of Glaucoma?
Are you short sighted?
Do you have diabetes?
Are you of African-Caribbean origin?

If the answer is yes to any of these questions, then you are at an increased risk and should definitely have your eyes tested regularly.*

Why has this practice invested in OCT?

We believe this advanced imagery allows us to detect and monitor early stages of diseases and as this examination is not available under the NHS, we make an additional charge for this scan. Please ask for further details.

This assessment of your eyes using OCT Technology will give us the most accurate diagnosis possible and help us give you the best advice to protect your sight and the health of your eyes.

Your eyes deserve the benefits of cutting edge technology available at this practice.

One killer comedian

STAND-UP comedian Andrew Lawrence pledged his 'Reasons to Kill Yourself' show will provide a boost to those feeling low about life.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

His tour will be at The Phoenix Theatre & Arts Centre in Bordon next Thursday, April 23.

"This is a show for anyone who's lost all their enthusiasm for life and yet gets on with it anyway, despite not being entirely sure why," he told the Observer.

"It's a miserable show for miserable people - but even for people who aren't miserable, it can still provide an evening of laughter, because there's a load of great jokes in it."

The 35-year-old started his comedy career as a student at the University of St Andrews.

"This summer I will be performing my tenth show in consecutive years at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival," he added.

"It is truly a hideous event, where I am fairly sure I have met over the years some of the most horrendous people ever to have walked the face of the earth.

"However, I've got an audience there now, so I go back every year for the money.

"Also, I'm taking my dog this time so I think I'll manage to get through it without needing counselling after."

Not one too afraid to express his opinions, the comic has also been known to discuss controversial topics, leading to Twitter debates with fellow comedians.

"I just say what I think is going to make people laugh - I don't consider my material from a moral perspective as I think that's a job for audiences and critics, not for me," he said.

The 8pm show is suitable for over 16s and costs £13.

True Irish tale

BASED on a true story, the popular production of 'Essence of Ireland' will be at The Anvil tomorrow, April 16.

Set against the backdrop of Ireland, England and America from the 19th century, the heartwarming yet heartbreaking tale sees Coro McGowen and Sean Dempsey separate from each other and Ireland.

Tickets for the Churchill Way event cost £22.75 with the show starting at 7.45pm.

Cooking class

AN authentic Indian cookery course will start at The Aldworth College next Tuesday, April 21.

Opera at The Anvil

AN unattractive hunchback jester, who is incredibly skilled at humiliating courtiers for the amusement of the Duke of Mantua will bring the tale of 'Rigoletto' to life on The Anvil's stage next Tuesday.

The opera will be performed at the Churchill Way venue starting at 7.30pm on April 21.

When the charming but unreliable Duke steals the jester's daughter's heart, how will her father attempt to prevent the love affair?

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The black opera could leave the audience on their edge of their seats during the three acts.

"I know Basingstoke isn't very big but I have got a fabulous set for the production," director/producer Ellen Kent told the Observer.

"There shall be a golden eagle, two regal rescue greyhounds along with a few naked ladies and this all happens within the first 20 minutes of the opening act!

"So we have a great decadent and debauched show for the audience."

Based on the 1832 play, 'Le roi s'amuse', written by French playwright Victor Hugo, it caused huge controversy in France after its opening performance, and the French government banned it from ever being performed again, saying it insulted the then King of France, King Louis-Philippe.

But, 19 years later, Italian composer Giuseppe Verdi adapted the play into his work.

He did however keep its black side for which the opera, is renowned.

Ms Kent, added: "This opera has got a serious feast of colour, fabulous costumes, wonderful soloists who come from many different countries around the world and the cast is just exceptionally good, but it's a great tragedy that this opera isn't very popular.

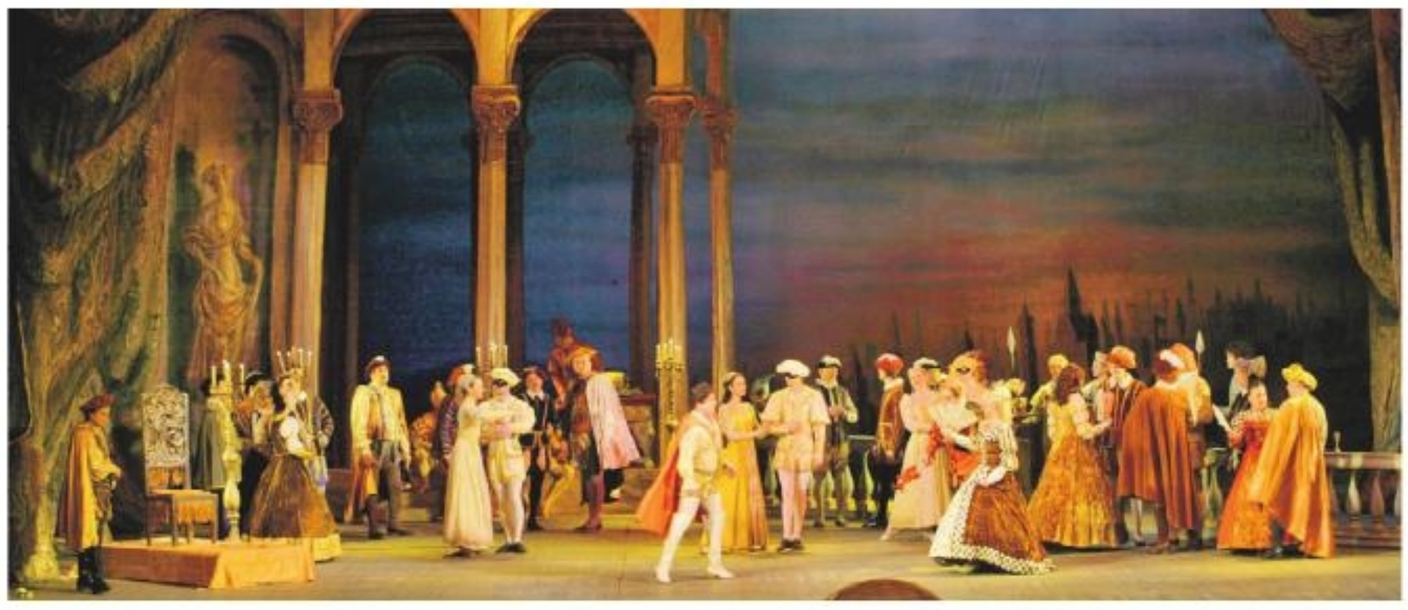
"In 24 years of doing opera this is only the third time that I have Rigoletto.

"It's a fantastic story, which is incredibly dramatic, so I really don't know why this play isn't as popular as it should be.

"We are so conservative these days about opera.

"This is an extravagant production."

Tickets cost from £14.50 to £36.



Woofs & wellies

A walk exploring the North Hampshire countryside will set off from Farleigh Wallop this Saturday, April 19.

'Woofs and Wellies' are looking for people with or without dogs to join a sponsored walk or five, eight or 12-mile long walk.

Starting from 9am at Home Farm on Earl of Portsmouth Estate it will finish at 1pm and costs £10 for adults, or £4 for children.

Creepy crawlies

LEARN about creepy crawlies when Geoff Read visits Basingstoke Discovery Centre tomorrow, April 17.

Children will be taught about snails, spiders and giant stick insects.

The 2pm workshop is suitable for five to 12-year-olds and costs £2.

History Boys

The 2006 film adaptation of Alan Bennett's play, 'The History Boys' will be screened today, April 16, at Basingstoke Discovery Centre.

When eight students from a Sheffield grammar school get top scores in their exams, they are a step closer to entering Oxford or Cambridge.

Two free screenings start at 1pm and 3.30pm.

Renault to show vast range of van conversions at final day of the CV Show in Birmingham

A diverse taste of Renault

THE NEC in Birmingham will be swamped with fresh-faced Renaults as the French manufactures showcase the diversity and versatility of its light commercial vehicle range at this year's CV Show.

By James Richings

The annual event which has taken place in every April since the year 2000 – will finish today.

It is the largest and most ample road freight transport, distribution and logistics event staged in the United Kingdom, with Renault this year showcasing 17 vehicles and every automobile on show being available to purchase from July this year.

Renault's CV Show 2015 line-up will be made up of a number of different vehicles which includes seven different models from the Renault Trafic range, six diverse models from the Master range, two models from the very popular Renault Kangoo range, with one Renault Twizy Cargo Ambulance also being on show.

The Twizy became a huge topic of discussion back in January, as it was used in an episode of Top Gear, where James May drove the small car from one side of Russian's second largest city St. Petersburg to the other.

Steve Wilson, LCV Product Manager, Renault UK, commented: "Renault recognises that every business is unique and has specific requirements. We are committed to providing vehicles to fit those needs.

"We try to tailor our range to suit the greatest needs with our factory-built conversions so there is only one invoice and one contact, but for customers who require something more specific to their needs, our network of Approved Converters is skilled in building specialist and bespoke converted vehicles."

One main factor that could contribute to Renault's popularity at this year's event will be the company's four-year, 100,000-mile warranty with roadside assistance.

The extensive Renault warranty package with roadside assistance carries no mileage limit in the first two years and then adds a further two years of cover up to a maximum of 100,000 miles, with any material or assembly defects being rectified free of charge.

There is also a three-year paintwork warranty and six years' cover against corrosion.

Along with the warranty, roadside assistance also lasts for four years and is available throughout the whole day.

If the vehicle cannot be repaired at the roadside or outside the owner's home, it will then be towed to the nearest dealer. Onward travel with European cover is included for three years.

For more information, visit www.cvshow.com.

• A wide variety of Renault vehicles will be on show

Best ever result for Rose at the Masters

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

AN IMPRESSIVE performance from North Hampshire golfer Justin Rose saw him finish tied for second place at the Masters at Augusta in the USA on Sunday.

Rose ended the tournament on 14 under par as he tried to reel in the runaway winner, 21-year-old Jordan Spieth, on the final day.

The two were paired together on the fourth day of play at the historic Georgia course, with Rose teeing off at the first hole four shots behind.

Birdies on the first two holes helped Rose to reduce the gap to three, but bogeys on the sixth and eighth saw him end the front nine five shots back.

He got the deficit back to four with three consecutive birdies on holes 13, 14 and 15, but with Spieth continuing to fire in difficult putts to reduce his own score, Rose was unable to catch.

And a bogey at the final hole meant that Rose ultimately ended up tied for second with three-times Masters champion Phil Mickleson.

Speaking to the PGA Tour, Rose said: "[Spieth had] awesome composure. Every time I thought maybe there was a chink in the armour, he'd come out and hole an eight-foot putt.

"He's been in contention every single round it feels like since I can remember - definitely the last four tournaments he's played and just so comfortable with the lead."

Rounds of 67, 70, 67 and 70 ensured that Rose's tied-second finish was the best he had ever managed in the tournament, and along with Mickleson was the best score recorded by a runner-up in Masters history.

It was also his first top-10 result at any major since his 2013 US Open victory, and his best performance in any tournament so far this year.

Spieth became the second-youngest winner of the Masters with his 18 under par result, which also ties the record lowest score set by a then 21-year-old Tiger Woods back in 1997.

Wintney get back on track with win over Hanworth

HARTLEY Wintney got back to winning ways with a 3-0 home victory over Hanworth Villa on Saturday afternoon.

The win was their first in the Combined Counties Premier League in almost a month – their last being a 4-1 triumph over Farnham Town on March 14.

It sees them stay ninth in the league standings with 53 points, three behind eighth-placed Badshot Lea.

But it was a miserable weekend for Whitchurch United, as they were heavily beaten 4-1 away to Blackfield and Langley.

It was the Jam Boys' first defeat since the start of March, although they remain fifth in the Wessex Premier Division with 67 points.

Tadley Calleva did not play at the weekend, and a win for main rivals Team Solent last Tuesday meant that the Southampton outfit wrapped up the Wessex First Division title early.

Calleva are competing with Cowes Sports for second place, and currently hold a two-point advantage over the Isle of Wight outfit as they head into their final games of the season.

All three teams are back in action this Saturday, as Wintney host Mole Valley SCR, Whitchurch are at home to AFC Portchester, while Calleva make the journey to Hythe and Dibden.

Collard eyeing up another win

HOOK-BASED racing driver Rob Collard will be hoping for another race-winning performance when the second round of the British Touring Car Championship gets underway this weekend.

The series heads north to Donington Park for the next three races of the championship on Sunday.

Collard put in a strong showing in the first race of the season at Brands Hatch on April 5 as he came from fifth on the grid to take the first victory of the year.

Races two and three didn't go his way and yielded no points, but his first race performance meant he picked up the eighth win of his touring car career.

Donington has not been a happy hunting ground for Collard in recent years, having not been on the podium there since a second place finish in 2010.

However he did manage to pick up his only win at the circuit in 2009.

Collard currently sits 10th in the title standings with 21 points, but after a competitive first weekend of action is only 16 points behind current leader Matt Neal.

Sport Bites

Chinn retires

ICE HOCKEY: Basingstoke Bison captain Nicky Chinn has confirmed his retirement from the sport.

He made his debut for the Herd in 2003, and was part of the play-off and cup winning squad from last year.

Chinn said: "I felt it was the right time to stop playing and it would have been nice to have gone out on a win, but it was not to be."

Home walkover

RUGBY: Basingstoke RFC's miserable season continued as they conceded their away game with London 1 South leaders Wimbledon without kicking a ball.

Wimbledon were awarded a home walkover for the match, and it comes after 'Stoke were also forced to concede their game with Twickenham on March 21.

Their last game of the season against Dover is scheduled for this Saturday, although it is not known if 'Stoke will be able to fulfil the fixture.

They are bottom of the standings with 17 points, and have already been relegated from the division.

Tough defeat

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town Ladies ran the unbeaten Southern Region league leaders Maidenhead United close, but were ultimately beaten 1-0 on Sunday.

Maidenhead have not lost a single game from 16 matches this season, and only narrowly got the better of Basingstoke at the weekend.

The result keeps Basingstoke second in the league, although third-place Oxford City have drawn level with 28 points.

Town are back in league action away to Parley Sports Ladies on Sunday.

End with a win

HOCKEY: It was a triumphant end to the season for Basingstoke Hockey Club, as they beat Chichester 6-5 in an entertaining match.

Two goals for Dean Record and further efforts from Will Malone, Jed Mills, Mark Smith and David Stones saw them pick up their 12th win of the season.

They finished fourth in the Hampshire/Surrey Regional 1 standings with 42 points, and will remain in the league for another season.

PLACE IN PLAY-OFFS SECURED

Basingstoke Town are in contention for end of season promotion race

BASINGSTOKE Town were guaranteed a play-off place despite losing 2-1 away to Sutton United on Saturday.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

An added time effort from Sutton's Shaun Cooper meant the hosts pinched the win, although both sides put in good shots during the closing stages.

There were very few chances in the opening 20 minutes, and it was Sutton who opened the scoring from a Jamie Collins shot that Town keeper Stuart Moore spilled over the line.

Town levelled shortly before half-time when Simon Dunn was brought down in the penalty box.

Liam Enver-Marum stepped up to confidently convert the spot kick.

Sutton were denied a second soon after the break thanks to expert defending from Town's Tom Bird, who cleared Craig Dundas' powerful effort.

It was in added time that both sides had their best chances.

Basingstoke's Lloyd Macklin missed his shot and Rob Dickie's rebound attempt was blocked.

In the last chance of the game, Moore dropped a corner effort, and Cooper was on hand to bundle the ball over the line.

Although Town lost, results from other games ensured they would at least be competing in the play-offs at the end of the season, although they have slipped five points back from Conference South leaders Bromley.

Speaking to the club, Town manager Jason Bristow said: "The last time we made the play-offs, it was unexpected and came after a late charge.

"This time we have been up at the top all season and the expectancy is there.

"That brings a little bit of added pressure but pressure everyone is relishing.

"We have just got to stay focused and not worry about anyone else."

Just two league games remain of the season.

Town host Havant and Waterlooville on Saturday, before making the trip to Weston-super-Mare on April 25.

Personal best at Masters for Rose

NORTH Hampshire golfer Justin Rose secured his best finish in the Masters on Sunday - tied for second behind Jordan Spieth at Augusta, in Georgia, USA.

Rose had been in the final pairing with Spieth on Sunday as he attempted to overhaul the American's four shot lead, but was not able to catch him.

His final score of 14 under par was the best runner-up score ever recorded in Masters history.
